

What is a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend?

- A Marriage Encounter weekend is an enriching and personal experience where you can spend time together, away from the distractions and stress of everyday life, to focus on each other and your relationship.
- This is an enrichment weekend for the two of you. It is not a retreat, marriage counseling, or a sensitivity group. (The team does not provide marriage advice.)

What is the weekend structure? Will we have to share in groups or with others?

- A series of presentations is given to the group as a whole by a team of Catholic couples and a priest.
- After each presentation, in the privacy of your own room, you have the opportunity to use the weekend concepts to connect more deeply with each other. (There are no group discussions.)

What is the cost?

- There is a $60 non-refundable application fee. At the end of the weekend you will be invited to make a confidential donation to help cover costs and support this and other WWME weekends. (WWME is a registered Canadian charity).

Are accommodations provided?

- Yes (each room has a queen bed and private washroom), and meals are included.
- The weekend runs from 7:00 Friday evening until about 4:30 Sunday afternoon. Each session is a stepping stone to the next, so it is important you can commit to the full weekend and be present for all sessions.

When is the next weekend, and how do we apply?

- April 7 - 9, 2017 at the beautiful new Our Lady of Hope Retreat Centre in Hope River, PEI
- Complete the attached form, and mail it, with $60 application fee, to James and Connie McNeill, 107-135 Pownal Street, Charlottetown, PE C1A3W7.
